1. [REDACTED] Prof. Olgierd Gorka, Polish Consul in Jerusalem, returned to Palestine about 9 October. Gorka left Jerusalem about 23 July for what was to have been a month's trip to Poland. 25X1A2g
2. During Gorka's absence it was reported ([REDACTED]) that he had been designated technical adviser to the Polish UN Delegation. Subsequently (4 October 1947), it was rumored that Gorka was in disfavor with the Warsaw government and was about to be dismissed from the Consular service following the discovery that a relative of his was involved in an anti-Warsaw plot.

[REDACTED] Comment: Gorka's reappearance in Jerusalem would seem to cast some doubt on the validity of both of these rumors.
